Isagenix International Launches New Gilbert, Ariz. World Headquarters

Company Celebrates 14th Anniversary and $900-Million Revenue Mark

GILBERT, Ariz., March 8, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Isagenix International (http://www.isagenix.com/?sc\_lang=en-US), a global health and wellness company, has opened its new 150,000-square-foot Gilbert, Ariz. world headquarters. As the first corporate tenant of the new Rivulon development, Isagenix brings more than 580 jobs to the local economy.

A ribbon cutting ceremony was held on March 7, 2016 where Isagenix Co-Founders Jim and Kathy Coover received a key to the city from Gilbert Mayor John Lewis to officially launch its new facility. Additionally, Erik Coover, Isagenix Senior Vice President of Global Field Development highlighted the company's future expansion and $900 million in annual revenue. Local dignitaries, including Arizona state Senators Andy Biggs (<http://www.azleg.gov/MembersPage.asp?>

Member_ID=22&Legislature=50&Session_ID=102) and Chuck Gray (http://www.azleg.gov/MembersPage.asp?Member\_ID=74&Legislature=48&Session\_ID=85) were also present for the celebration.

"We started Isagenix 14 years ago out of nearby Scottsdale," said Jim Coover, Isagenix Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer. "We're thrilled with our new global headquarters where we can continue to contribute to local economic growth. Gilbert is a wonderful, thriving community within the greater Phoenix area and is a great location where we can continue to grow and positively impact world health."

Employee wellness is the focus of the state-of-the-art facility located at 155 E. Rivulon Blvd. Exterior glass walls decrease the need for electricity and provide natural daylight, which studies show increase team productivity and overall health. Additional amenities include:

- A 300-seat auditorium perfect for all company meetings and events
- Personal technology hookups in every room to support domestic and international video connectivity
- An interactive lobby museum that traces the company's history
- Technologically advanced laboratories dedicated to developing new food and health products
- An on-site cafeteria with healthy food options and more

"On behalf of the state of Arizona, the greater Phoenix area, the Phoenix East Valley region, and the community of Gilbert, we are excited to hand Isagenix the key to the city and welcome its team to the Gilbert community," said Gilbert Mayor John Lewis.
